This is Matt Beaver, the drummer with Scotty Thurman and The Perfect Trouble Band, with Abby! Abby actually owns Matt's roommate Chad (who serves as road manager for the band) but she owns Matt also! Abby is a full blood yellow lab pup and won over the heart of Matt (and Chad) on October 14th when she turned 6 weeks old. Bringing her home to Muenster from her canine Mama who lived in Sherman was an adventure as Abby was already wanting to drive at that point. When she grows up she may just be the driver taken to all shows on tour. Abby is very very smart and Matt even says she reminds him alot of Marley (of Marley and Me fame). Living with a drummer can't be easy but Abby is well trained and a very mellow pup. Matt and Chad will tell you they have her trained but we're pretty sure it is the other way around. So next time you see Matt at a show you might check back stage and see if Abby is waiting to drive him and the rest of the band home!
